Reference: Nominations/General Information

Dear Friends,

Please find below some information regarding your nomination. We are kindly asking you to read it carefully and to follow all requested deadlines in order to facilitate a smooth cooperation.

1. The travel expenses of all FIBA Commissioners, Referee Supervisors and Referees will be paid by FIBA. Please find enclosed the detailed instructions.
2. Please make sure that your national basketball federation shall confirm your nomination to the FIBA Secretariat per fax by 31st March 2009 at the latest.
3. FIBA will inform the organisers of the exact arrival date/time/flight number so that you will be met at the airport and transferred to the hotel.
4. The FIBA Clinic for all FIBA Commissioners, Referee Supervisors and Referees will be held before the championship as follows:

Venue: Hotel for FIBA Referees

Date: 1st July 2009, 9:00 – 17:00

The arrival of all participants in Auckland must be on 30th June 2009 at the latest.

Program: The clinic will focus on Three-Person Officiating and the Unification of the Officiating Criteria. The official FIBA Physical Fitness Test will also be held for all FIBA Referees who must have their weight very proportional to their height.

5. All Referees will be provided with a complete set of the Referee's Uniform and you will be asked to use it during the championship. However you are requested to bring your black shoes and referee's shirt(s) with you.

Thank you for your close co-operation.

Best regards,

Lubomir Kotleba
Sports Director
